

A Fool Without A Clue

How on earth can silence be so violent
It fucking rips my heart in two
In this bloomy garden where our journey started
I no longer hear my name

Oh I still love you
But I don` t know what to do
Oh I Still Love You
A Fool Without A Clue

Another word just wont do
To shine a light on us two
So this silent note`s in vain

Oh I still love you
But I don` t know what to do
Oh I Still Love You
A Fool Without A Clue

Oh I still love you
But I don` t know what to do
Oh I Still Love You
A Fool Without A Clue
